Historical Society

The Eastlake Historical Society would like to have the Senior Center work with them in trying to gather information on some of the former sights that once graced our city. Who better than the Seniors to help them piece together the many "pieces of a puzzle" that they have been gathering from different sources. They have several streets, homes and empty lots that once served as a special place for many as they were growing up. In the future months, they would like to include the Eastlake Senior Center in this undertaking, to help them succeed in this venture.

WELCOME TO FALL

Like it or not Fall is here again, the leaves are starting to turn, it's cooler in the mornings, the nights are good for sleeping and the days are good for walks in the park.

Here at the center the Wednesday Nites team are busy setting up the Fall parties and activities. This year Halloween falls on a Wednesday Nite and most of the folks voted to have the party on that night. This is one of our big parties so don't miss it.

Also don't miss our Thanksgiving (Day of Sharing)

Later on we will be doing our Toys for Kids, we have always been excellent at this and for the sake of all the kids in need I hope we are again this year. (Remember Christmas is for Children.)

Anyway here are some of the party dates you need to know.

HALLOWEEN Wed. October 31th.

THANKSGIVING Wed November 14th

CHRISTMAS Wed. December 19th

NEW YEAR 2013 Wed. January 2nd.

There will more than likely be other parties between these, in fact every Wednesday Nites is different and the only way to know what is going off is to be there, We'll all save you a seat now, so come on down.

THE HATS AND MITTEN TREE

You will probably think this is a little early to mention, but we are going to anyway. Our Christmas hats and mitten tree.

We shall probably be putting it up by the end of October. Last year you were all wonderful and we got loads of hats, mittens and even scarves.

These are for the children of head start a really good cause, so lets see if we can beat last years count and we can feel really good about ourselves.

Brenda
