I suppose by now that you all know that the JFK Holiday Boutique was a success, and I would like to thank all the volunteers and the members that donated items to help make this possible. This was the largest single event we have ever undertaken and was largely due to a lady named Angela, without her help and her vendors it would not have happened.

Our annual Thanksgiving Party (Day of Sharing) is over and we hope all of you that came on down to help us celebrate and give thanks for the harvest had a good time and enjoyed the feast, we thank all our volunteers, all the people that made food to share and not forgetting the band of musicians that make every Wednesday Nite possible.
